RESIGNATION OF DAVID HALL FROM CHALLENGER LISTED INVESTMENTS LIMITED BOARD

16 May 2006, Sydney — Challenger Listed Investments Limited (CLIL), the Responsible Entity of the Challenger Wine Trust (ASX: CWT), today announced the resignation of David Hall from the CLIL Board.

Mr Hall has been a Director of CLIL since CWT listed on the Australian Stock Exchange in July 1999 and a member of the CLIL Audit and Compliance Committee since its creation in July 2003.

CLIL Chairman, Mr Stephen Gerlach, noted Mr Hall's strong support for the establishment of CWT, which today remains a unique offering in the Australian listed market.

Mr Gerlach said: "Mr Hall's foresight, strategic guidance and strong commitment to good corporate governance made him a valuable and highly respected member of the CLIL Board.

"On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Mr Hall for his contribution and wish him every success in his pursuit of his ongoing business interests."
