14B. Foreign Controlling Persons (Individuals)

Tax residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is a tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the US, tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency.

Are any of the individuals listed in the application form (directors, substantial shareholders, trustees, trust settlors or trust beneficiaries) tax residents of countries other than Australia?

No  $\blacktriangleright$  proceed to section 14C.

A TIN is the number assigned by each country for the purposes of administering tax laws. This is the equivalent of a Tax File Number in Australia or a Social Security Number in the US. If a TIN is not provided, please list one of the three reasons specified (A, B or C) for not providing a TIN.
