CHALLENGER CAPITAL NOTES OFFER OPEN AND REPLACEMENT PROSPECTUS LODGED

4 September 2014, Sydney – Challenger Limited (Challenger) today announced the opening of the Challenger Capital Notes offer (Offer).

As announced on 29 August 2014, following the successful bookbuild $340 million has been allocated on a firm basis under the Broker Firm and Institutional Offers.

Challenger may accept up to a further $20 million, depending upon the response received from eligible shareholders through the Shareholder Offer<sup>1</sup>.

The total amount to be raised under the Offer will be a maximum of $360 million. The final size of the Offer will depend on applications received and accepted under the Shareholder Offer. Challenger retains the right to scale back applications received under the Shareholder Offer.

The margin has been set at 3.40% p.a. over the 90 day Bank Bill Rate.

As a result of strong demand, Challenger will not proceed with a General Offer.

A replacement prospectus, including the margin and increased Offer size has been lodged today with the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) and Australian Securities Exchange (ASX).

Shareholders wishing to invest in Notes should complete the application form (either electronic or paper) included in the replacement prospectus. The replacement prospectus is available at www.challengercapitalnotes.com.au, or by calling the Challenger Capital Notes Offer Information Line.

Investors should consider the replacement prospectus in full before deciding whether to invest in Notes.
